DESCRIPTION OF REPRODUCED ITEM:

Elizabeth Huntington. ALS to Frederic Dan Huntington. In: Porter-Phelps-Huntington Family Papers (box 12, folder 8).

Mr. F. D. Huntington

Amherst College.

[1938]?

Monday morning.

Dear Frederic, you have been informed by Mary of William's prospect. Cousin Dan too is expecting to be married this month. A sad time for old folks. Theodore is probably on his way home by this time. Mary I suppose told you all about the party at Theophilus's. Friday, Miss Thurston and the cousins drank tea with us. Saturday Munroe Clapp and wife, Ann C. and Mary made a visit to Theophilus, Bethia joined the party. Yesterday all went to N. and heard Mr. Forrester, excepting myself. I enjoy now and then such a day of silliness very much. We all need these seasons to collect our wandering thoughts, and fix them more exclusively on the things belonging to a better life. The world hasseth away, every day brings with it wants which ought to teach us that this is not our home. The allurements of the world are too apt to engage the hearts of the young. It is therefore wise to set apart in each day a little season which shall be sacredly devoted to God and the interests of the soul. -

May your my dear Frederic ever keep your eyes directed to Heaven, for Looking to Jesus is the privilege and the delight of his followers. God bless you now and ever.

most affectionately.
your mother Harriette
